A NOTE FROM KATE

Happy New Year Y Friends!

I hope you all had a wonderful holiday season and are ready to welcome 2025.

The new year brings intentions of resetting, creating goals, and making the most of this fresh start. However, it can be easy to get consumed with ideas of perfection and progress while consistently placing pressure on ourselves.

Here are some reminders for working towards your goals in the new year:

- Shift the way you look at progress. Progress is different for everyone. You will experience ups and downs throughout your journey, and that's okay. Treat every moment as an opportunity to learn and grow.
- Be realistic — change doesn't happen overnight. Setting goals on Jan. 1 does not mean you will achieve them by Jan. 2; It takes time to accomplish them and cultivate new habits.
- You can restart anytime. If the new year is not an ideal time to restart because you are experiencing burnout from the holidays, need rest, or feel sick, that's okay. Every month, day, and hour is a chance to restart and embark on a new beginning. Remember, you are in charge of your own timeline.
- Say goodbye to comparison. During this time of year, we're surrounded by others also going after their goals. While this can be motivating, it also fosters the ideal environment for comparison. We're all on different paths, and comparison can be detrimental to our individual progress.
- Prioritize celebrating yourself. Celebrate your growth with every opportunity you can. Chances are you've grown more than you may realize. Appreciating even the tiny wins encourages gratitude and self-love. Both of which are motivating when chasing after your goals.

See you at the Y!

PROGRAM SPOTLIGHT

NEW FOR 2025

Faith & Fitness

Fox West YMCA

Tuesdays, beginning January 21, 2024

10:30 AM

In this 4-week program, you will have the opportunity to transform your mind-body connection as we focus on our relationship between physical fitness and spiritual fitness. As a Personal Trainer, I am well versed in the aspects of Physical Fitness, but as a child of God, I am always looking to develop a stronger connection spiritually. If you have a similar interest or want to try something new, I would love to have you join me on this journey of mind, body, and spiritual growth.

Each week we will focus on a new theme that covers both physical and spiritual fitness: 1-Strength, 2-Balance, 3-Perseverance, and 4-Transformation. Each theme presented over the 4-week program will also change the focus of our workouts.

Jenn Ness has a number of roles at the Fox West YMCA, she works in Wellness, ForeverWell, Personal Training, CPR instructor, and Building Supervisor. Jenn holds both a BA and MS in Biology. Jenn says, "I enjoy working with people. I love the camaraderie between co-workers, the wonderful members I call friends, and the fact that no two days are exactly the same. My daily goal is to make others smile by sharing my smile so working at FWY makes that easy!"

WHAT'S HAPPENING AT THE Y

ForeverFit All YMCA of the Fox Cities Locations

SilverSneakers® Classic classes will now be ForeverFit. This new class will be offered at the same times with the same great instructors.
